

Dave Mitchell joins G. H. Financials, LLC as Regional Sales Executive

August 13, 2018

Chicago, 13th August 2018 – G. H. Financials (“GHF”) is pleased to announce that Dave Mitchell, formerly the Business Development Manager for Chi-X Australia, has joined G. H. Financials, LLC as Regional Sales Executive for North America.

Based in Chicago, Dave will focus on strengthening existing customer relationships and developing new business opportunities in the strategic North American market. His addition to the team reinforces GHF’s commitment and focus to this core market.

Dave joins G. H. Financials with over 24 years financial markets experience. Dave has extensive business relationships within the US, Asia and Australia and has a strong background of delivery and client care. In his previous roles as Business Development Manager for Chi-X Australia, and ASX in North America he delivered market share through developing existing relationships and onboarding new participants.

Russell Levens, CEO, G. H. Financials, LLC comments:

“We are delighted to have Dave join the team at G. H. Financials. We see Dave as key to driving our continued growth through the delivery of excellent customer service and care which he has demonstrated in all his roles.”

Dave Mitchell comments:

“Joining G. H. Financials in Chicago is a dream role; the values of the business in terms of delivering excellent services with outstanding customer care, combined with a solution orientated approach to business aligns with my own personal values and continuing desire for excellence.”
